INDICTMENT

The Grand Jury charges that:

Counts One-Two

(Mail Fraud)

A. Introduction

At all times relevant to the Indictment:

1. "OLOLA" is a senior independent living community in St. Louis, Missouri.
2. "SHC" is an elder care company located in the Eastern District of Missouri.
3. Edward Jones is a federally insured financial institution.
4. "MKS" was a resident at OLOLA. MKS has a medical condition that requires her to employ caregivers to assist her.
5. NOLDON was employed as a certified nurse's assistant (CNA) caregiver with SHC from about February 18, 2016 to May 21, 2016.
6. NOLDON was assigned to be one of MKS's caregivers. NOLDON had regular access to MKS's residence at OLOLA. The general scope of NOLDON'S employment as a caregiver included: performing light housekeeping; providing transportation to scheduled appointments and errands; meal preparation; and assisting with personal hygiene and medication. NOLDON was not authorized to engage in any financial transactions on behalf of MKS.

7. NOLDON provided elder care to "T.G." and "E.G.".

B. The Scheme to Defraud

8. Beginning on or about March 1, 2016, and continuing through on or about October 31, 2016, both dates being approximate and inclusive, in the Eastern District of Missouri and elsewhere, the defendant, devised, intended to devise, and knowingly participated in a scheme to defraud and obtain money from MKS, TG, EG, Edward Jones, and other businesses in the approximate amount of $30,000.00, by means of materially false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises, to wit: that the defendant fraudulently assumed the identity of MKS in order to engage in a variety of financial transactions for the defendant's benefit.

9. It was part of the scheme and artifice to defraud that on or about March 31, 2016, NOLDON used MKS's personal information to fraudulently obtain a Citibank credit card, *8482. NOLDON fraudulently used that credit card to make numerous personal purchases; obtain cash advances; and pay utility bills.

10. It was part of the scheme and artifice to defraud that on or about April 29, 2016, MKS's Edward Jones investment account, account number *-1-9, was compromised when an unauthorized online account was activated.

11. It was part of the scheme and artifice to defraud that on or about April 29, 2016, an online attempt was made to fraudulently transfer $5,000.00 from Edward Jones investment account *-1-9 to NOLDON's Citibank prepaid credit card ending in *4822.

12. It was part of the scheme and artifice to defraud that on or about April 29, 2016, a Credit One credit card was applied for online using MKS's personal information. Credit One approved MKS for a line of credit and mailed credit card *7110 to MKS's residence at LOLA.

13. It was part of the scheme and artifice to defraud that on or about May 3, 2016, three attempted fraudulent online transfers of $5,000.00, $4,000.00, and $2,000.00 were made from account *1-9 to NOLDON'S Citibank prepaid credit card ending in *4822.

14. It was part of the scheme and artifice to defraud that on or about May 5, 2016, two fraudulent online transfers of $4,000.00 and $2,000.00 were made from Edward Jones investment account *1-9 to NOLDON'S Citibank prepaid credit card ending in *4822.

15. On or about May 6, 2016, a fraudulent transfer of $8,550.00 from MKS's Edward Jones retirement account to Edward Jones investment account *1-9 was completed. Edward Jones became aware the fraudulent activity and reversed the transaction before MKS's accounts experienced any loss.

16. On or about May 19, 2016, NOLDON fraudulently used a First Bank account, *083, belonging to TG and EG to make a payment on *8482.

17. It was part of the scheme and artifice to defraud that on or about May 21, 2016, NOLDON used the fraudulently obtained Credit One credit card *7110 at a Schnuck's grocery store in Overland, Missouri to make personal purchases in the amount of $153.02.

18. It was part of the scheme and artifice to defraud that on or about May 23, 2016, NOLDON used the fraudulently obtained Credit One credit card *7110 at a Sam's Club store and an Exxon-Mobil in the Metropolitan St. Louis area to make purchases which exceeded $101.00.

19. It was part of the scheme and artifice to defraud that on or about June 9, 2016, NOLDON fraudulently used MKS's personal information, including her social security number to submit an online application for a Barclaycard Visa credit card. Barclaycard rejected the fraudulent application and subsequently mailed to MKS via the U.S. Postal Service a letter detailing the fraudulent application and reasons for rejection.

20. It was part of the scheme and artifice to defraud that on or about August 2, 2016, NOLDON fraudulently added herself as an authorized user to MKS's Citibank credit card *6815. NOLDON thereafter fraudulently changed the account's mailing address from MKS's home address to reflect NOLDON'S residence on Ranch Lane in St. Louis, Missouri. NOLDON fraudulently used *6815 to make numerous personal purchases.

21. It was part of the scheme and artifice to defraud that between about May 15, 2016 and October 15, 2016, NOLDON fraudulently accessed MKS's Central Bank account, *776, and used that bank account to make payments on Citibank credit cards *6815 and *8482 in an attempt to conceal her scheme to defraud.

The Mailing

22. On or about the dates listed below, in the Eastern District of Missouri, the defendant, DE'JANAY NOLDON, for the purpose of executing the foregoing scheme and artifice to defraud or to obtain money or property by means of false or fraudulent pretenses, representations or promises, and for the purpose of executing the scheme or artifice or attempting to do so, knowingly caused to be delivered by mail any matter or thing, fraudulent credit card bank statements, to wit:
